Permission Slips FAQ

Permission Slips are submitted electronically
via the following links:

Elementary-Aged Youth (Schools and CYPS)
<https://a4l.me/eps>

Middle and High School-Aged Youth (Schools and Teen Centers)
<https://a4l.me/mps>

- All selected Team Leaders must have a permission slip signed and submitted to participate in Anchored4Life and to attend any training, and/or any affiliated activities.
- Advisers are required to share the permission slip link with your selected Team Leaders' parents/guardians.
- The electronic permission slip can be submitted via phone, tablet, or computer (Windows or Mac).
- Advisers, please inform your parents/guardians that they will receive an email confirming the submission to save and store for their records. If they do not receive an email, the submission was unsuccessful; please try again.
- Advisers can view submissions anytime using their Anchored4Life login credentials.
- Anchored4Life only requires one (1) permission slip submission for the life of the student when implementing Anchored4Life at your location. *If the youth moves to another location, the Team Leader will be required to complete another permission slip for their involvement at that location.
- The permission slip includes a photo/video release for Advisers to check before releasing any photos/videos to Anchored4Life. Advisers, please review this section of the permission slip for each Team Leader.
- The permission slip gives access to our A4L privacy policy, which is found on our website, <https://anchored4life.com>.
- Anchored4Life offers a Spanish version to support families.
- Crew Members are not required to have a permission slip on file with Anchored4Life; however, it is recommended.
