It's important to learn how to express your grief. Let's make a memory collage to honor your deceased loved one or pet.

Starting with a sheet of construction paper, select materials from the table you want to use for the collage. You can select magazine photos to cut out and glue onto the collage, draw and color a picture, add stickers or write a poem. Or, you can do all of these. Whatever you feel is the best way to share memories of your loved one or pet.

When you're finished, we'll discuss your collage.
